Title:

I confirm that all content in this abstract is original and correct. I have not plagiarised any part of the abstract. Submission of the abstract constitutes the consent of all authors. This abstract submitted by me is only for the international symposium JSS TDM 1.0 “Precision Antibiotic Therapy in the Era of Antimicrobial Resistance: Role of Therapeutic Drug Monitoring, PK/PD Modelling, and Genomic and Biomarker-Based Resistance Profiling” which will be held from 7th to 9th May 2026 at JSS College of Pharmacy, Mysuru and was not presented anywhere in any form including poster and paper.

I hereby confirm that the contact details given on the Google form are correct and I as a presenting author, will notify you about the status of the abstract to co-authors. I realise that the presenting author must be a registered participant.

The organisers reserve the right to accept or reject my abstract for a paper or poster presentation. I also agree that I should select a specific theme for the conference, as mentioned on the website. However, the scientific committee reserves the right to change the theme if required.

If my paper (oral/poster) is accepted I am consenting/ not consenting (please tick the appropriate) to publish the abstract and full paper in conference proceedings/journal, with the APC charges if applicable.
