

Myriad REPORT 2025

Myriad, the dramatics club of JSS Medical College, experienced a vivacious and fulfilling year. The club put forward a range of exciting events and activities, which both enhanced their ideologies as a club, and gave a variety of opportunities for people to put forward versatile performances.

This club stands as a vibrant platform for creativity, expression, and teamwork. At its core, the club is led by President, Prashansa, whose vision and leadership continuously inspire the members to push boundaries and strive for excellence. Supporting her is Vice President, Ananneya, whose commitment, coordination, and creative insight all play a crucial role in shaping the club's activities and growth. It is home to several tenacious members, each of whom brings enthusiasm, originality, and a strong sense of responsibility, contributing wholeheartedly to every event and initiative.

From 31st May to 2nd June, Myriad conducted thrilling events as a component of Tatvam, the cultural fest. These events cultivated a space where every participant was encouraged to be original and unique.

➤ TATVAM IMPROV

Date - 2/06/2025

Venue - JSS Dental Auditorium

IMPROV featured a series of short performances where participants were given prompts on the spot and asked to act out scenarios instantly, without any prior preparation. It is a highly energetic and interactive event that not only entertains the audience but also encourages creativity and confidence among the participants. Organised by Ishika, Lodha and Yash, the event ran smoothly and concluded with an enhanced sense of community in the audience.

➤ MONO ACT

Date - June 2, 2025

Venue - JSS Medical College, Mysuru

This event was curated to celebrate solo theatrical performances, giving participants a stage to showcase their emotional depth, storytelling, and dramatic skills. This event presented a range of participants, whose performances covered diverse themes and languages, including Kannada, Hindi, and English, reflecting both cultural richness and individual creativity. Overall, the event was well received by the audience, performers and organisers as a vibrant and engaging element of the fest.

➤ MAD ADS

Online event

The MAD ADS event, held as part of the college's virtual cultural fest, brought a burst of laughter and innovation to the digital stage as participants showcased hilarious ad parodies for quirky, fictional products. As one of the core events of the fest, MAD ADS appeals to a large audience, extending beyond the boundaries and fears of a stage.

➤ STREET PLAY

Date - 1st June | Venue - Food Court Circle

Street Play is one of the flagship events the club puts forward during this season. Being the epitome of drama, this even has it all, from music to dance to raw emotions all in one place. This event challenges the participants to put forward their best performances for the large crowd of people it attracts. Thus, bringing together a group of people brimming with tenacity and enthusiasm. This year, too, it was as creatively curated as the rest, concluding with a content and energetic crowd of people.

Date - 23rd October, 2024

Venue - Sri Rajendra Auditorium

The Drama Club of JSS Medical College, Myriad, on 23rd October 2024 delivered an engaging and humorous skit titled Baat Pe Bawaal during the Cultural Night of Asclepius 2024. This comedic parody took the form of a talk show, with a unique twist: it paired various "guests" from diverse fields—some serious, some light-hearted—in lively debates on pressing societal topics. Overall, the event was successful in cultivating a delighted audience.

➤ U-FEST

From 15th March to 17th March, Myriad actively participated in U-Fest by presenting two engaging and impactful events; Mad Ads and Street Play. The club aimed to showcase creativity, teamwork, and social awareness through expressive performance art.

➤ MAD ADS

Online event

Mad Ads was an online event that witnessed an overwhelming participation by students from various undergraduate and postgraduate programmes. It brought a burst of laughter and innovation to the digital stage as participants showcased hilarious ad parodies for quirky, fictional products. Conclusively, it successfully brought together a large group of people who connected on their passion for drama.

➤ STREET PLAY

Date - 17th March, 2025

Venue - Food Court Circle

This event focused on addressing relevant social issues through powerful storytelling and strong performances. The performance successfully captured the attention of the audience and spread awareness while delivering a meaningful social message. It witnessed enthusiastic participation and received an encouraging response from the audience. Ultimately, participants from JSS Medical College bagged first place in this fierce race.

➤ RANGMANCH- Improvisation workshop

Date: 2nd March

Venue: Sports Complex

Myriad conducted an improv workshop, Rangmanch, at the Sports Complex. The workshop offered valuable insights into the fundamentals of acting, highlighting small yet significant aspects that enhance an actor's performance and make it impactful and memorable. These concepts were applied through a round of Character Improv where attendees played roles they related to. Followed by a game of character charades, where one team enacted a well-known character while the opposing team attempted to guess it. Overall, the event was able to enrich the crowd with practical acting skills and a deeper appreciation for improvisational theatre.
