

TATVAM 2023

EVENT REPORT

The annual inter-collegiate cultural and sports fest of JSS Medical College, TATVAM was held from July 11th to 16th, 2023. The much loved and awaited fest of the college adorned a regal atmosphere this year with the theme “A Royal Affair: Where History, Culture and Grandeur Meet” and delved into the dynasties of Indian royalty. The fest was inaugurated by the college dignitaries, cultural and sports committee on 11th and 12th July, 2023. The college day was celebrated on 11th July, which had students witness a plethora of events like the batch dances, ethnic walk and the performance by the college band, “Fremitus”. The sports events were held between 12th to 14th July. It included Basketball, Futsal, Throwball, Volleyball, Table Tennis, Badminton, Cricket and Chess. Teams and players from various medical and allied health sciences colleges of the state were seen taking part in high spirits and sportingly competing for the various sports’ championships. All the events were closed with a prize distribution ceremony for the winners and outstanding players. The cultural and literary events were conducted between 14th to 16th July by the dance, music, fine arts, drama, literary, Forensic Medicine and quiz clubs of the college. The campus was teeming with cheerful students from various colleges, taking part and spectating the different events being conducted.

ETHNIC DAY

Our medical college organized an 'Ethnic Day' event that highlighted the vibrant cultural heritage of our students. The event, held on 11.07.23, featured batch-specific dances where each batch creatively presented a dance, fostering a sense of pride and camaraderie among peers. Our college band- Fremitus, performed various songs and had the audience swaying to the beats of various melodies. The highlight of the event was the ethnic walk, a captivating fashion show where students elegantly donned attire and had a fun time walking. The entire day not only allowed students to express themselves but also served as a platform for appreciation and learning. By fostering an atmosphere of inclusivity and respect, the 'Ethnic Day' contributed to the enrichment of our college community, exemplifying the harmonious coexistence of various traditions within our institution.

BIBLICHOR- THE LITERARY CLUB

Shipwreck

The event was held on 14th July at Gallery 6. Unique prompts were given to the participants like, 'Voldemort who is looking for a nose', 'Bill Gates with an urge to beatbox' and 'Clumsy James Bond'. The participants had to convince the judges to save them from the sinking ship while adapting to the characters allotted to them. It was a fun and lighthearted event. The event was organized by Krishna Rajmohan and Akuti Khanna. Ankit Agarwal and Abhirup Chakraborty bagged the prizes.

Poetry

The event was held on 14th July at Gallery 6 from 2 to 4pm. Prompts were allotted to the participants beforehand and 10 out of 20 participants were shortlisted to recite their poetry in front of the judges. All participants performed well, the prizes were won by Vishnupriya Gopinath and Shruti Mehta. The event was organized by Manas Rastogi and Kumar Saurav.

JAM

The event was conducted on 14th July at Gallery 2 from 2 to 4pm. The participants were given unique topics like 'What would you do five minutes before the end of the world' and '13 is actually a lucky number'. The participants were explained the rules by the organizers and Shreyas Eswaran and Dhrish Vasa were the JAM Masters. The event was organized by Hiba Aysha and Saarika Sekaar. Neha Patil from RRMCH and Meena Iyer from JSS emerged victorious.

Debate

The event was held on 16th July at Gallery 1 from 11am to 2pm. The motion was, 'This House believes that the beliefs of the artist should be independent from their art. A total of 17 teams with each comprising of 2 members participated. Each team expressed their opinions either for or against the motion and were cross-questioned by the judges. The event was organized by Esther Jose and Dhrish Vasa. Ankit and Kavyini, and Eyob and Morrow were the winning teams.

Potpourri

The event was held on 16th July at Gallery 6 from 2pm to 5pm. A total of 40 teams participated in the event with each team comprising of 3 members. The event was conducted over four rounds, which were- Classic Pictionary, who am I, Reverse Pictionary, and the Bidding Round. The prompts varied from novels and movies to common idioms and some historic events.

The event was organized by Deeksha Ramesh and Eashan Singh. The teams comprising of Ankit, Kavyini, Bhavya and Srishti, Samriddhi and Sanchi bagged the prizes.

Anime Quiz

The event was conducted on 16th July at the Pharmacy Auditorium from 9am to 11am. The prelims and the final round tested the knowledge of the participants related to various Anime shows and characters. Each team was comprised of 2 members. The event was organized by Puneet Saini, Aditya Rangra and Aabhas Singh. The winning teams were those comprising of Dheeraj N. and Prajwal Devin from MMCRI and Aman Singh and Mohammed Adnan from JSSMC.

Literary Marathon

The event was conducted on the 15th and 16th of July at Gallery 6. The event started off with a treasure hunt which had two parts: - In the Online round, all the participants were sent clues which pointed to a specific place in the campus which they had to guess and use to obtain the next clues. The teams which made it through the online round competed in the Offline treasure hunt in which they had to go to the places in campus indicated in the clues and obtain the subsequent clues. The offline treasure hunt marked the end of the first day of the literary marathon. 16 teams made it through onto the next round after the first day.

Day two of the Literary Marathon started off with a written mixed bag round which consisted of 4 sub-rounds; Crossword, Categories, Who/What am I? and guess the meme. This round concluded with the elimination of another 8 teams.

The next round was a Twitter-Battle Improv round. Each team was allotted two characters at random, and they had to stage an interaction between those characters much like they would on the social media platform- Twitter. The last round was a general literary trivia quiz which was called face-off. The event was organized by Karthik Shankar, Arushi Kaushik and Arush Sudan. The event was won by the team Consisting of Vaidehi Ajay, Sagar Shaji, Sona Sudhi, and Nithya Ravishankar.

MYRIAD- THE DRAMA CLUB

Street play

The Street Play event held on 15th July 2023 saw participation from students at various medical colleges. The plays highlighted challenges faced by society. Important aspects like Castism, Mental Health and Violence against women were displayed by the teams. The winning team depicted a good play by engaging the judges and the audience through their act using props and through their story of manual laborer and sewer cleaners and how they go completely unseen by society. The team which came second gave a tough competition by illustrating their play in a female sportspersons journey in a creative and energetic way. The teams were judged by script, originality, expression, voice modulation and delivery of the message. It was witnessed a crowd filled with joy and excitement.

Winners: SDU Kolar

Si-two-ation

This was a one-of-a-kind improv event wherein teams of 2 were given situations on the spot and had 10 minutes to prepare a skit on the same. The situations ranged from a foreign tourist in Dehli, to not being prepared for a visa to meeting your long list relative. All teams performed exceptionally well and brought out laughs as well as serious reactions from the crowd.

In the first round, each team had 2 turns at making a skit and the top 2 teams progressed to the final round where their topic was a conversation between the gatekeeper of the afterworld and a civilian who tries to convince him to let him go to heaven.

Winners: Sugandha Kumari and Yashu Juneja from JSSMC
Runner up: Harsh Kesarvani and Sudiksha Mishra from JSSMC

LIGHTS CAMERA ACTION

The Lights Camera Action event, a debut event by the drama club of JSSMC was a reel making competition conducted at Tatvam, the annual fest of JSS Medical College. It was a reel making event which required its participants to recreate the given or their own chosen movie scenes with as much originality as possible.

It allowed its participants to highlight their flair for movie making and flaunt their camera skills. Being an all-encompassing event, it had something for everyone - those wishing to star as stellar actors, as well as those behind the camera, capturing the exact scenes and perfecting the editing profile.

The participants, from JSSMC as well as other colleges, sent in their versions and the original clips online and a screening was organized at Gallery 5 of the college on 14th July 2023.

Ms. Sangeetha Alwar and Ms. Saima were the esteemed judges for the event, and they provided valuable feedback with respect to each video.

First place

Nikith NA and team of BMCH

Runner up:

Tie between

Ganesh Golasangi and team of BMCH and Chris Merison and team of JSSMC

All in all, it was a very successful event with active participation and enthusiastic minds and shall be continued in the following episodes of Tatvam, JSSMC.

Monoact

Mono acts are a unique art form that enables individuals to delve deep into the realm of storytelling. It is a powerful medium where a single performer can create an entire universe, embody multiple characters, and evoke a range of emotions, all by themselves. Today, we will witness the power of a single voice, a single body, and a single vision that can captivate and mesmerize an entire audience.

All the participants displayed tremendous courage in stepping onto the stage for which we celebrate their bravery and artistic prowess.

Their performances were not mere entertainment; they were windows into human experience. They offer us insights into the diverse stories, struggles, and triumphs of our society.

The winner for the event Osheen from SDU, Kolar brought us a story of a victim of Gujarat riots and took us on a unique journey exposing the terror, fear, and despair among the victims. She beautifully showcased various emotions of how a girl fell in love, how she was so happy about it, and how she was brutally killed on the day of her marriage.

2nd prize won by Hiba Aysha from JSS, Mysuru brought us an act about a rape victim, which clearly challenged us to think, to reflect all the impressions we have regarding these victims.

MAD ADS

The Mad Ads event at Tatvam 2023, the annual fest of JSS Medical College, was a debut event by the drama club of JSSMC.

It was an event focused on charismatically and humorously pushing the product allotted to them! It allowed its participants to highlight their flair for sales and flaunt their communication skills and stage presence.

The participants, from JSSMC as well as other colleges came on stage with their original and enthralling ads convincing the judges to buy their products. It was organized by the auditorium in the Pharmacy college on 16th July 2023.

Dr. Divya A Kurthikoti and Mr. Partha were the esteemed judges for the event, and they provided valuable feedback with respect to the ads put up.

First place: JSSMC

2nd place: SDU Kolar

All in all, the drama events held during Tatvam were very successful with active participation and enthusiastic minds and shall be continued in the following episodes of Tatvam.

THANDAVAM DANCE CLUB

SOLO CLASSICAL DANCE

14th July 2023

JSSMC Sri Rajendra Auditorium

The Solo classical dance event of Tatvam 2023 was held on 14th July 2023 at the JSSMC Sri Rajendra Auditorium from 9:00 - 11:00

12 enthusiastic participants took part in the competition in hopes of claiming the first and second places, worth cash prizes of Rs. 2500/- and Rs. 1500/- respectively.

The audience witnessed vibrant and colorful performances from every participant, with dance forms ranging from Bharatnatyam and kuchipudi to kathak and more.

The event was judged by Mrs. Harshini Purushothama and Mrs. Anusha who are both passionate Bharatnatyam dancers and teachers. It was organized by Vaishali Agarwal and Shruti Singh and managed by dance club president Tanishka Kochhar along with core Yashu Juneja, Muskan Jindal and Payal Tada.

With each participant performing better than the next, it was a tough decision for the judges to arrive upon.

Finally, the first place was bagged by Devika Sanjayan 2nd year MBBS, JSSMC and the second place by Anusree T. Ajith 4th year MBBS, JSSMC for their graceful moves and expressive display

All in all, it was a fun morning, equally exciting for both the participants and the audience. The event ended after the winners were announced.

B

FACE OFF SPOT CHOREOGRAPHY - PRELIMS

The preliminary round of the Face Off Dance competition was held on Friday July 14th, 2023. The participants were ready to shake up the stage with their moves, but they still did not know their songs! Each participant was allowed to listen to their surprise track only 2 minutes before their performance, during which they had to improvise their choreography on the spot. Then they were made to immediately perform their dance on stage, and the participants really outdid themselves! Each participant brought something new to the stage with incredible choreography, expressions and creativity and it was an awe to watch. The audience was excited to see the performances and were loudly cheering for the talented performers onstage, and quite a few were dancing along as well! The event was judged by Rajeshwari Pattar, a renowned Bharatanatyam, hip hop, Bollywood, and contemporary dancer; and Rashmitha K, an extremely talented dancer who has performed in many movies and music videos. It was indeed a tough decision for them to make, but in the end only 2 finalists could be chosen to compete in the Faceoff Finals, and those two finalists are Caitlin, a 3rd year medical student from Malabar Medical College, and Shashank M, an intern from JJM Medical College. After congratulating the finalists, both the judges and both the finalists gave an electric impromptu performance on stage as well! Overall, it was an exciting event with lots of creativity in the air!

ABCD REPORT

ABCD... anybody can dance! This fun filled surprise event on the last day of tatvam was one of the most interesting events for both organizers and participants. With 3 unique rounds like the hook step challenge, just dance and copy paste (where participants had to perform a choreography that they had only seen twice from memory!) This event had everyone dancing by the end of it!

The judges for the event were Rajeshwari Pattar, a Bharatnatyam and hip-hop dancer who performs in stage shows and Rashmitha K who has participated in many dance competitions and worked as a backup dancer in numerous films. They had a tough time deciding the winners, with each round ending in a tie breaker.

Abora from JSSMC took home the first prize and Shashank from JJM MC was a close second.

GROUP DANCE COMPETITION – TATVAM 2023

On July 16, 2023, as a part of TATVAM 2023, the intercollegiate fest of JSS Medical College, Group Dance competition was held at the auditorium at JSS Pharmacy College from 3:30 pm to 6:30 pm. There was a total of 8 teams for the competition out of which 4 teams were from the host college, JSS medical college, and the other 4 teams were from various other medical colleges across India. The judges of the event were Ms Harshini Purushothama who is a trained Bharatanatyam Dancer with 10 years of teaching practice and has won the Nithya Mani title, and Ms Anusha who is a passionate Bharatanatyam Dancer with a teaching experience of 13 years and has done various performances at Tirupathi Utsav, Mysuru Dasara and so on.

The performances of each and all the team were spectacular and breath taking, ranging from classical to contemporary, and they were indeed a treat to the viewer's eyes. The participants were judged based on choreography, costume, expressions, props, energy, with a time limit of 6+2mins. The winners were announced during the Valedictory Ceremony and the first place was secured by Ms Anusree T Ajith and her team of JSS Medical College followed by second place to Sunanda and her team of Sri Devaraj Urs Medical College, Kolar and were encouraged with certificates and cash prizes. The event was held successfully with the help of the constant efforts of The Core Committee Ms Tanishka, Mr Yahu Juneja, Ms Muskan, Ms Anusree T Ajith, Ms Payal, Mr Darshith and Group Dance organizers Ms Fathima Sithara, Ms Anusree Sreekumar Ms Sanjana Shivakumar Volunteers Ms Avanthi, Ms Viha and Mr Navkiran and the MCs Ms. Chetana and Ms. Anishka

DUET DANCE COMPETITION- TATVAM 2023

On July 15 2023 , as a part of TATVAM 2023 , the intercollegiate fest of JSS Medical College , Duet Dance competition was held at the Sri Rajendra auditorium at JSS Medical College from 11:00am to 1:00pm . There were a total of 15 teams for the competition out of which 10 teams were from the host college , JSS medical college, and the other 5 teams were from various other medical colleges across India.

The judges of the event were Ms Harshini Purushothama who is a trained Bharatanatyam Dancer with 10 years of teaching practise and has won the Nrithya Mani title , and Ms Anusha who is a passionate Bharatanatyam Dancer with a teaching experience of 13 years and has done various performances at Tirupathi Utsav , Mysuru Dasara and so on .

The performances of each and every teams were spectacular and breath taking , ranging from classical to contemporary , and they were indeed a treat to the viewer's eyes.

The participants were judged based on choreography , coordination and spacing , theme and music , energy, expression, sense of rythm , props and X factor, costume, with a time limit of 4+1mins. The winners were announced after the event and the first place was secured by Ms Anusree T Ajith and Meenakshi Krishna of JSS Medical College followed by second place tied between Avinash and Aarsha of JSS medical college and Amith and Kushi from Mandya institute of medical science, were encouraged with certificates and cash prizes . The event was held successfully with the help of the constant efforts of The Core Committee Ms Tanishka , Mr Yahu Juneja , Ms Muskan , Ms Anusree T Ajith , Ms Payal , Mr Darshith and Duet Dance organizers Ms Lakshmi Rajeshwari Nair and Mr Ramshad ,Volunteers Ms Sharenya Chowdhry, Ms Ishita Garg and the Mcs Ms Mariya Reji and Ms Navkiran Kaur.

Kalakriti Events

Art marathon

Date- 15th July 23. 9 to 1 pm

Location - Gallery 1 JSS Medical College

Introduction - The Art Marathon competition was held on 15th of July 2023 at Gallery 1 of JSS Medical College consisted of three rounds. Participants were eliminated in the second round and the top five finalists were selected for the last and final rangoli round!

Event highlights- The first round began with the participants choosing themes out of the four clues that were given to them!! They had to make any form of artwork in a span of one hour, working for 30 minutes each! The catch to this was that they could not see each other working and had to produce a masterpiece together! At the end of this round, 5 teams were selected for the final rangoli competition!!

Judges- The judges were Ms. Sayema and Dr. Premlata who took out their previous time to judge this event meticulously to make sure the most deserving team won.

Awards- Judges were given 5 parameters according to which they came to a conclusion.

Conclusion - Considering this was a surprise event and the participants had no clue whatsoever about the rules and regulations, it was a huge success! And the participants produced some wonderful and creative pieces of art and had immense fun playing with colors at the last round!!

Just reel it

Event: JUST REEL IT

Date: 15/07/2023 (9-11 am) Location: JSS dental auditorium

Introduction:

The Reel Competition, held on 15/07/2023 at JSS dental auditorium brought together talented reelmakers from diverse backgrounds to highlight their creative works. This event provided a platform for aspiring reelmakers to exhibit their storytelling abilities through short films.

Event Highlights: Reel Screenings:

The heart of the event was the screening of a captivating array of short films. These films covered various genres, including drama, comedy, documentary, and experimental works. Each film conveyed powerful messages and emotions, leaving the audience enthralled.

Judging Panel:

A panel of esteemed judges, consisting of industry experts and film professionals, meticulously evaluated the entries. They provided constructive feedback to the participants, offering valuable insights for their future endeavors.

Awards: Judges were given the parameters based on which marks were allotted

Collage making

Event- COLLAGE MAKING

Date- 15th July 23

Location - Gallery 1 JSS Medical College

Introduction - The Collage Making competition held on 15th of July 2023 at Gallery 1 of JSS Medical College witnessed creativity being expressed by 21 different teams in the form of collages.

Event highlights - Creativity is the fuel that charges a person's soul, fills their life with passion and brightens up each day. The themes were fashion in royalty, royal architecture, and royal face which they had to incorporate on a collage using bits of magazines. In the span of two hours, each team performed with all their zeal and enthusiasm. The result had 21 mesmerizing collages whose photos have been included.

Judges- The judges were Ms. Sayema and Dr. Premalata who took out their previous time to judge this event meticulously to make sure the most deserving team won.

Awards- Judges were given 5 parameters according to which they came to a conclusion.

Conclusion - The event was a huge success with all 21 teams having a lot of fun for those 2 hours. It was mesmerizing to see how so many different people could translate their creativity so differently using common themes.

Art attack

Title: Art Attack- Celebrating Festivals Through Sustainable Art

Organizers: Ria Goel and Riya N Mathew

Introduction:

The recently concluded art event, "Art Attack Festivals Reimagined: Art from Waste," held at JSSMC on the 16th of July as part of TATVAM 2023, delighted participants, and spectators with its unique fusion of festival themes and sustainable art creation. By encouraging participants to transform waste materials into artistic expressions inspired by various festivals, the event aimed to promote environmental consciousness and celebrate cultural diversity. This report highlights the tremendous success of the event and its positive impact on the participants and the spectators.

Event Concept and Execution:

The event organizers invited artists and enthusiasts to highlight their creativity by repurposing waste materials into visually stunning artworks that captured the spirit of different festivals. Participants were encouraged to draw inspiration from traditional festivals around the world, including Diwali, Dussehra, Holi, Christmas, etc. The event spanned for a total of 4 hours held on the 3rd floor, during which participants were provided with a diverse range of discarded items, such as fabric scraps, broken jewelry, crepe papers, cardboard boxes, markers, paint, and discarded paper, to bring their festival-themed creations to life.

Participant Engagement:

The event generated significant enthusiasm among artists and creative individuals, resulting in diverse and enthusiastic participation. The response from artists and enthusiasts was overwhelming, with 13 teams participating in the event. Artists from various backgrounds and experience levels embraced the challenge of transforming waste materials into festival-inspired artworks. The event fostered a sense of camaraderie and collaboration, with participants exchanging ideas, techniques, and materials, further enhancing their artistic journeys.

Judges:

Dr. Sushant Sawant Dr. Shwetha

Winners:

First place: Team 10- Sheryl, Sanchi, Anusha and Shashank

Second place: Team 16- Team 16 Aarushi Singh, Rahul Kumar, Bhagyashree S and Srujana P
Special mentions:

Team 11- Arjun, Harsh, Manasa and Harshita

Team 12- Srijal Saini, Shweta Gupta, Shreeja, and Shreya Goel

Tatvam photography

Event - Tatvam Photography Online Event

This year's Tatvam Photography contest featured an exciting and vibrant photography event that captivated the judges with its creative displays and enthusiastic participants. The photography event aimed to highlight the artistic talents of 18 students and foster a passion for visual storytelling through the lens.

The photography event attracted a diverse range of participants, including both seasoned photographers and beginners eager to explore their passion for capturing moments. Students from various departments enthusiastically submitted their entries, all photographs taken during Tatvam 2023.

The judging panel consisted of Dr. Vijay Salem and Ms. Sayema who evaluated the entries based on their technical excellence, creativity, and ability to convey a powerful message.

The winners of Tatvam photography 2023 were Tanish_handique in the 1st position, Rosemary in the 2nd position!

Overall, the college fest photography event proved to be an inspiring and engaging experience, providing a platform for students to exhibit their skills, learn from professionals, and immerse themselves in the captivating world of photography.

This is me, Ananya Thaker and my fellow organiser, Ms. Fathima Thansiha, signing off.

BOOK COVER PAINTING

The event was held at Gallery 1 from 9:30am to 12 pm on 14/7/2023. There were 22 participants in total. Participants were given the topics on 13/7/2023.

The topics were:

1. FOLK CULTURE
2. ROMANCE AND LOVE
3. ADVENTURE AND EXPLORATION.

Participants were provided with cardboard pieces and A4 sized white chart papers for their painting.

The judges were Dr. Meenakshi, Ms. Sangeetha Alwar, and Ms. Saina. Judges made the judgement by 1pm and results were announced at 1:30 pm.

Roop E Shringar

Organizers: - Kalyani Krishna
Anamika Agarwal
Pranav Santosh
Date: - 15/7/2023
Venue: - Rajendra auditorium

"Roop E Shringar" - the much-awaited fashion event at Tatvam 2023 was conducted in all its glory and splendor on 15th of July in our very own JSS MC Rajendra auditorium witnessing an enthralling turnout of not just fashion enthusiasts but every individual who appreciates and celebrates the power and beauty behind the art. The event commenced in the evening and the atmosphere was charged with excitement and anticipation.

Fashion show highlights: -

The captivating event aimed to highlight the creativity, diversity, and innovation in the world of fashion while providing a platform for the emerging designers and models to present their unique creation on stage. The fashion show incorporated captivating music and visual display that complemented the ambience and the designs presented by the respective teams.

Esteemed guests from the fashion industry, Mr. Punit Subbaiah and Ms. Seebal Mathew graced the event. They also served as judging panel, evaluating the collections based on creativity, craftsmanship, adherence to the theme and overall presentation.

The winners of the event were declared by the judges which included MMC bagging the first prize and JSSMC securing second place.

The judges' feedback provided valuable insights and encouraged them to continue their pursuit of excellence in the fashion industry.

The event left a lasting impression on the attendees and set a standard for future cultural fest fashion shows. The overwhelming response from the audience and their appreciation ensured that the event was a truly memorable experience for all involved. The fashion event set up meticulously by the organizers undoubtedly contributed significantly to the success of Tatvam making it an unforgettable celebration of fashion and culture.

GAMING EVENT

In adherence to our commitment to fostering a balanced academic and recreational environment, we organized a 'Call of Duty' gaming event at our esteemed medical college. The event aimed to provide students with a platform to unwind and engage in healthy competition. Held on 16th July 2023, the event garnered enthusiastic participation, with students competing in a vibrant gaming atmosphere. Through meticulous planning, we ensured that the event adhered to all necessary regulations, and necessary measures were taken to prevent any disruptions to the college's daily operations. The event not only provided an avenue for relaxation but also encouraged camaraderie among the participants. Overall, the 'Call of Duty' gaming event successfully contributed to our college's multifaceted approach to student well-being.

Teacher's Event Report

Teacher's Event of 'Tatvam' 23, was held on 15th July, 2023 at the JSS Medical College Auditorium from 3:30pm to 5:30pm. The competition began with great zest and excitement. 13 teachers took part in the competition. The Melodious voice and vivacious dance performances set the floor on fire with their energetic performances. The teachers, dressed in colourful costumes, enthralled the audience. The judges for the event were Dr. Pooja Joshi, Ms Sushma, and Ms Sridevi. All the teachers were thrilled and performed enthusiastically.

The first prize in Duet Singing was bagged by Dr Soumya and Dr. Sumanth, who stole the hearts of the audience with their Melodious Voice. And the First prize in Solo Singing was won by Dr. Shayam and second prize was won by Dr. Sumath for their incredible performance.

And The First Prize in Solo dance was bagged by Dr. Amulya

The judges congratulated the winners and appreciated the performance of all the participants, also encouraged them to participate more in such competitions to enhance their talents.

Murder at the Manor - Tatvam 2023

The "Murder at the Manor" event, organized by Oculis Iuris, the forensic medicine club, was held on 14th July 2023 at the Shree Rajendra Auditorium and the Forensic Medicine Department. This forensic-themed murder mystery event aimed to challenge the participants' investigative skills and knowledge while immersing them in a thrilling fictional royal storyline.

The event saw an enthusiastic participation of 34 teams, each comprising of 2 members, who were students from various medical colleges. The participants were provided with ample information about the dynasties involved in the fictional royal storyline to set the context for the crime scene. The event commenced with a Royal engagement celebration that took a dark turn when the King was found murdered.

Participants were presented with timely updates in the form of the "Royal Gazette," "Interrogation video of the suspects," and "Autopsy report." These updates contained valuable clues, riddles, and hints hidden in the surroundings to help the participants deduce the identity of the killer.

The participants were required to engage in active problem-solving, critical thinking, and keen observation of the provided content to make informed decisions. Additionally, they had the unique opportunity to "interact with the suspects", which added an element of realism and excitement to the event.

After an intense and engaging investigation, the winners of the "Murder at the Manor" event were announced. Ria Goel and Deeksha Ramesh, 3rd Year MBBS students from JSS Medical College, emerged as the victorious team. Their exceptional skills in analyzing the clues and speedy submission of their findings contributed to their victory. The runners-up position was secured by John and Sharanya, also 3rd Year MBBS students from JSS Medical College.

The participants were highly appreciative of the event and expressed their excitement and thrill throughout the investigation. They commended the event organizers for creating an immersive and challenging experience that showcased the practical application of forensic medicine concepts.

Oculis Iuris would like to extend its heartfelt gratitude to all the participants, faculty members, and staff who supported and contributed to the success of "Murder at the Manor" - Tatvam 2023. Their enthusiasm and cooperation were instrumental in making the event a memorable and enjoyable experience for everyone involved.

